MEDIUM/LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION:

Stellenbosch University adopted an inclusive language policy in 2016 (revised in 2021) to better serve its diverse student population. Afrikaans and English are SU's primary languages of learning and teaching.

Undergraduate modules can be presented in parallel medium (separate Afrikaans and English lectures for especially large class groups), double medium (all lecture information conveyed at least in English and summaries or emphasis on content given in Afrikaans) or single medium (either Afrikaans or English).

Undergraduate assessments can be written or submitted in either Afrikaans or English. The majority of undergraduate modules are presented as double medium. In the spirit of translanguaging, space is provided for the flexible use of languages of learning and teaching in tutorials and practicals, consultations, study groups, learning support environments and on online learning platforms to support and enhance learning.
Postgraduate programmes predominantly use English as the medium of instruction.

Dear Student

VERIFICATION OF NEW CEREMONIAL EMBLEM ON GRADUATION DOCUMENTATION

On 20 June 2022 the Council of Stellenbosch University (SU) approved a new emblem and seal for SU to complement the new corporate logo adopted in April 2021. The emblem and seal represent the ceremonial versions of the logo. The implementation of a new ceremonial emblem is part of our University's rebrand, which at the time entailed extensive stakeholder engagement, consultation and decision-making processes. The ceremonial emblem is a visual and symbolic continuation of our corporate logo. Both reflect Vision 2040, and unequivocally represent our commitment to excellence, inclusivity and innovation.

Given this approval, the graduation documentation from the December 2022 graduation onwards will reflect the new ceremonial emblem.

Stellenbosch University hereby confirms that the graduation documentation containing the new emblem and seal is valid and has been approved by Council.

Le embhlem yemisitho ingumzekelo obonakalayo nokwangumfuziselo wokuqhutyelwa phambili kwelogo yethu yobuqumrhu. Zombini ezi zinto zibonisa uMbono wethu ka2040, kunye nokuzibophelela kwethu ngokungagunggiyo kugqweso, ubandakanyo nakusungulo lwezinto ezintsha.

Ngokunikwa le mvume, amaxwebhu othwesozidanga ukususela ngoDisemba 2022 aza kubonakalisa imbhlem entsha esetyenziswa kwimisitho. Le embhlem intsha esetyenziswa kwimisitho iza kuvela phaya kumaxwebhu omsitho wothwesozidanga lwango-Disemba 2022.

VERIFIËRING VAN NUWE SEREMONIËLE EMBLEEM OP GRADEDOKUMENTE

Die die Raad van die Universiteit Stellenbosch (US) het op 20 Junie 2022 'n nuwe embleem en seël vir die US goedgekeur om by die nuwe korporatiewe logo te pas wat in April 2021 aanvaar is. Die embleem en seël dien as die seremoniële weergawes van die logo. Die implementering van 'n nuwe seremoniële embleem is deel van ons Universiteit se handelsmerkvernuwing wat omvattende deelname deur belanghebbendes asook konsultasie en besluitnemingsprosesse behels het. Die seremoniële embleem is 'n visuele en simboliese voortsetting van ons korporatiewe logo. Albei weerspieël Visie 2040 en ons onomwonde verbintenis tot uitnemendheid, inklusiwiteit en innovasie.

In die lig van hierdie goedkeuring sal die nuwe seremoniële embleem van die Desember 2022-gradeplegtigheid af voortaan op die gradedokumente verskyn.

Die Universiteit Stellenbosch bevestig hiermee dat die gradedokumente wat die nuwe embleem en seël bevat, geldig en deur die Raad goedgekeur is.

History

UNC Greensboro was established by legislative enactment on February 18, 1891 and opened its doors on October 5, 1892. Since its founding, the institution's name has been changed three times: 1891–1919—State Normal and Industrial College; 1919–1932—North Carolina College for Women; 1932–1963—the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina. In the 1963 N.C. General Assembly, the name was changed to the University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNC Greensboro) and by the same act the institution became coeducational. In 1972, the N.C. General Assembly, in special session, merged all state supported institutions of higher education into the University of North Carolina. UNC Greensboro is now a member of the 17-campus university system.

Accreditation

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate, master's, specialist, and doctoral degrees and certificates. Contact the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097, or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of UNC Greensboro.

Those interested may contact the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges for accreditation-related purposes such as inquiring about the accreditation status of UNC Greensboro, asking questions about the accreditation process, or to pursue procedures for filing complaints. All other inquiries, such as admission requirements, financial aid, educational programs, etc., should be made directly to UNC Greensboro, 336-334-5000.

Course Numbering and Units of Credit

Courses numbered 100–199 are primarily for freshmen; 200–299 for sophomores; 300–399 for juniors; 400–499 for seniors; 500–749 for all graduates, including doctoral; 750-799 for doctoral level only.

All credits are reported as credit hours. One credit hour equals one 50-minute lecture period or its equivalent per week for one semester. A semester is approximately 15 weeks in length. Transfer credits that may be applied toward the degree sought while the student was in attendance at this institution are listed with a grade of T, but are not necessarily a complete record of the credits the student has earned at other colleges.

Eligibility for Readmission

Unless a statement to the contrary is shown as the last entry on the record, a student is in good standing with the university and is eligible to return.

Chancellor's List and Dean's List

For information about Chancellor's List and Dean's List see the University Catalog.

Repeated Courses/Grade Forgiveness—for Undergraduate Students

Except for courses with specific provision for repeated credit in the course description, a UNCG undergraduate student may repeat a UNCG course in an attempt to earn a better grade. GPA hours and grade points from both attempts will be counted fully in the grade point average (GPA). Credit hours earned for the course will count only one time in the total hours for the degree.

The Second F or WF Policy takes precedence over this policy. The repeated grade must be a D- or above before it is calculated as the second attempt and calculated in the grade point average. Courses taught Pass/Not Pass can be repeated but not for grades other than P/NP. Course descriptions in the University Catalog identify courses that are graded on a P/NP basis, and therefore cannot be repeated for a letter grade.

This policy applies to courses repeated starting in Fall 1992.

In compliance with university policy, courses may be excluded from the calculation of GPA if the course is excluded as part of the Grade Replacement Policy or as part of grade forgiveness under the Academic Renewal Policy (see grading under "Academic Regulations" in the University Catalog for more information).

Repeated Courses—for Graduate Students

Except for independent study or where specific provision is made in the course description, no student may repeat for credit a course for which credit has already been earned. If a student repeats such a course, the grade will be recorded on the transcript but no additional credit will be allowed toward graduation or toward the grade point average.

Explanation of Repeated Course Symbols

- I Included in GPA with hours earned
- E Excluded from GPA, no hours earned, repeated courses. E is also used to denote courses that do not count in the GPA nor toward the degree, and undergraduate-level courses that appear on the graduate academic record.
- A Averaged in GPA, no hours earned

Transcript Format

The transcript is printed in chronological order beginning with the first semester the student attended. A separate academic record exists for transitional studies students, undergraduate students, and graduate students. Two separate transcripts will be automatically issued if the student attended the university both as an undergraduate and graduate student.

The academic record is organized around semester entries. Each semester entry contains a header, courses, semester summary, academic status (e.g., dean's list, probation, etc.), semester notes, and degrees.

If the student is currently enrolled, the current semester will be identified as In Progress work. Any grades recorded for the current semester will be included in the cumulative average printed at the end of the record. Future terms that have not begun may be shown as In Progress work.

When a student completes a program, a degree or certificate is awarded. The grade point average associated with the program or degree is computed based on the courses flagged as counting toward the program. A student may have several degrees with a separate average shown for each one.

Effective Fall 2016, all undergraduate courses taken by a graduate-level student will appear only on the undergraduate transcript.

Grades

Courses graded on the P/NP or S/U or SA/US basis and courses transferred from another institution may not be used in determining the UNCG grade point average.

Some courses may be excluded from the student's GPA because they are remedial, remove admission deficiencies, do not fulfill degree requirements, or fall under the academic renewal or grade replacement policies (see the current University Catalog for the full policies).

Authenticity

Transcripts for students enrolled since Summer 1984 are generated by an online Academic Records System. An official printed transcript appears on security paper with both sides printed in blue ink and containing the signature of the university registrar in white and an image of the university seal. Each page of the transcript is identified. When the front of this original document is photocopied, the words COPY and UNCG appear on the copy.

The official electronic copy of the academic record is of similar content and format to the official printed copy.

Verify Authenticity

The square is printed with thermochromic ink. It fades when exposed to heat, such as pressing it under a thumb. It gradually returns to normal as it cools.
