LETTER OF ADMISSION

Dear Mr. Oosthuizen:

On behalf of the International Programs Center (IPC), I am pleased to advise that you have been admitted as a visiting Undergraduate exchange student (student non-degree) for the Spring Semester of the Academic Year 2019-20 under the terms of an exchange agreement between Stellenbosch University, South Africa and The University of North Carolina Greensboro (UNCG). We look forward to welcoming you to our campus.

Please include a copy of this letter of admission when applying for entry into the United States. Your assigned student I.D. number is 888546798. You will need to include this number on all UNCG documents where requested and in your future emails to our office. Also enclosed is a complementary self-addressed envelope you may use to send in your completed student medical form to the Student Health Center prior to your arrival.

You have been approved to pursue course work in the following academic area(s): Music Performance. You are also eligible to pursue courses in other subjects if you like.

If you require additional support services, you have access to the Office of Accessibility Resources and Services. Their services include but are not limited to: Adaptive Technology/Computer Services and Alternative Testing. If you require their services, please email oars@uncg.edu. Please note: support service arrangements must be finalized prior to your arrival at UNCG.

You should note that there will be no charge for tuition, fees, room or board under the terms of this exchange agreement. Please log into the study abroad portal and complete the additional steps.

Health Insurance Notice: U.S. Government regulations require all J1 students to have sufficient medical insurance coverage to participate on an exchange to the United States. Detailed information on insurance options will be sent to you in a separate memo.

Payment Notice: The deadline to submit your full payment to UNCG is January 17, 2020. If you are not able to pay in full at that time, you must meet with an adviser at the Cashiers and Student Accounts Office to set up a payment plan during the first week of classes, January 13-17, 2020.

Sincerely,

Denise L. Bellamy, M.S. Ed.
Senior Director of International Programs
